ALNAP is a global network of NGOs, UN agencies, members of the Red Cross/Crescent Movement, donors, academics and consultants dedicated to learning how to improve response to humanitarian crises.

Following the genocide in Rwanda in 1994, the Joint Evaluation of Emergency Assistance to Rwanda \(JEEAR\) led to demands for increased professionalisation of the humanitarian sector. There was a sense that the system had failed in its response to this crisis. The need for much more rigour when evaluating what was working and what was not, as well as better communication of learning and...
